

This memo is written to inform you that I am opposed to the petition filed by the Consumers Bank Association regarding the state of Indiana's telephone privacy Law. The CBA filing is an attempt to weaken the state legislation now in place and working well to the benefit of the State's citizens. I oppose any change in the State law which would in turn weaken existing State Legislation. I am asking the FCC to deny the CBA's petition and dismiss in favor of the State Legislation.